IN MEMORIAM

BALILEY—In loving memory of my dear husband, and our dear daddy, L. C. (Claude) Bailey, who passed away on the 8th February, 1930, late 37th Batt. A.I.F.

Sometimes we get sad and lonely,
When we think of the times that were bright
But one thing that we know dear daddy
You're a bright star in heaven to-night.

—Inserted by his loving wife and children, 197 George-street (mainland papers please copy).

BALILEY—In fond and loving memory of our dear son and brother, Leslie (Claude), who departed this life on the 8th February, 1931.

Gone from us that smiling face,
Those loving cheerful ways,
The heart that won so many friends,
In happy bygone days,
A life made beautiful by kindly deeds
A heart so generous for other's needs
A presence making sunshine where he trod
Home with the happy, resting now with God.

—Inserted by his loving mother and father, and brothers, Weldborough.
